Forum and Group Guidelines

InterNations is a network of trust. The forum is a place where members can exchange reliable and trust-based information. In order to ensure the quality of the information and of our community, please be aware of the following guidelines:

Written form of threads and comments

- o Ensure you post your thread in the right category
- o InterNations communication language is exclusively English
- o Thread subjects must be clear and concise
- o Typography of thread subjects and comments must stay moderate with no use of excessive punctuation or inappropriate language

Content of threads

- o Hate speech, racist remarks, intolerant utterances, and vulgarity are not accepted
- o Pornographic and sexual comments are not accepted
- o The Forum should not be used for commercial or job hunting purpose
- o Information from third party sources is not accepted unless members posting it hold the copyright. A link to the original source of the information should be indicated with an additional personal comment

Respectful conduct towards other members

- o All members are entitled to express their own opinions and must not be restrained by other members
- o Threads attacking or mocking other members, their comments, profile, threads or experiences are not accepted. Neither are threads concerning specific members

Administration of the Forum

- o InterNations reserves the right to delete threads if they are considered inappropriate. The member concerned will receive a notification explaining the reasons of the withdrawal of the thread
- o InterNations reserves the right to take necessary actions against any member not following the above mentioned guidelines
